

Marking Scheme decided in the meeting held on 19 December, 2017, at Delhi School of Economics, Room No. 104

Unique Paper code: 62273326

Paper name: Understanding the Economic Survey and Union Budget

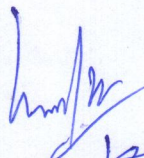

Name of the Course: BA (Programme) Economics: SEC

Semester: III

Sections	Remarks	Action to be taken
A	According to the current syllabus	Marking according to the quality of the answers written
B	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Five questions to be attempted out of eight questions.</li><li>Three questions in the paper were based on last year's syllabus, not present in current year's syllabus.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>If four questions are attempted, then these four answers to be marked according to the quality of the answers, for the fifth one whether attempted or not, give 8 grace marks.</li><li>If three questions are attempted, then these three answers to be marked according to the quality of the answers, for the fourth and fifth answers, whether attempted or not, give 8 and 4 grace marks respectively.</li></ol>
C	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>One question to be attempted out of three questions.</li><li>Two questions in the paper were based on last year's syllabus, not present in current year's syllabus.</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Minimum 10 marks to be given whether attempted or not.</li><li>More than 10 marks may be given according to the quality of the answer.</li></ol>

Marking in colleges should be according to the above guidelines.

A. Ghosh
20.12.17

A. Ghosh
Coordinator