NOTICE

We had convened meetings in May only for the 3rd year undergraduate courses that are to be taught this semester for the first time under the new CBCS syllabus. It was announced that for the 1st and 2nd year papers, meetings would be held only if there is a demand from college teachers, otherwise the minutes of last year's meetings (still available at <http://econdse.org/ba-h-notices/>) would continue to be valid. Teachers who would like to have meetings for a particular core or elective paper should contact the convener of the last meeting and point out specific problems they would like to discuss. The convener will then arrange a meeting in consultation with the Department office.

Regarding SEC papers, the policy is that the Department may not be able to provide a faculty coordinator, but will provide a venue for meetings at which college teachers can discuss the syllabus, after which the minutes may be conveyed to the Department office.
