NOTICE

Optional/Interdisciplinary Courses

Courses 109 (International Trade) and 609 (Climate Change Economics) are now open to MA (P) students, subject to passing course 001 (Microeconomic Theory). Students who have opted for an Interdisciplinary course but now wish to opt for one of these courses instead may withdraw their application for the Interdisciplinary course by 12.00 noon on Friday, 13th January, 2017.

Several applications for Interdisciplinary courses have been received in which one student has written and signed multiple identical letters for many others in the same handwriting. Students should submit original applications signed by themselves by 12.00 noon on Friday, 13th January, 2017. Applications without original signatures will not be entertained.

The last date for final selection of optional Economics courses is Friday, 27th January, 2017.
