

The Department of Economics at the Delhi School of Economics does not teach or admit students for undergraduate programmes. These programmes are offered only through the various colleges of Delhi University.

Information about undergraduate Economics admissions will be on the Delhi University website as and when it becomes available.

Please do not contact the Economics department regarding undergraduate admissions.